

It is absolutely amazing that the FCC is seriously considering a technology (BPL) that will interfere with existing services (amateur radion, international shortwave). Perhaps it is time to make certain out voices are heard via the Congress.